LeNae Goolsby

COUNTRY SONGWRITER

Country songs about love, heartbreak, starting over, and the things that stay with us.

Artist biography

LeNae Goolsby is a country songwriter whose lyrics pair conversational storytelling with a willingness to say what often goes unsaid.

Inspired at thirteen by her uncle, a former RCA staff writer and successful Nashville songwriter, she returned to that early ambition after building businesses, writing books, and raising a family.

Those experiences now inform songs about leaving, staying, and learning to trust again. Her catalog includes “She Gets the Words,” “Don’t Let Me Ruin This,” and “Who Told You That.”

How the songs come to life

LeNae writes the lyrics and directs the creative vision for her releases, using AI tools to help bring the recordings to life. Her writing draws on lived experience, relationships, and the stories that stayed with her.

Listen on Spotify Watch on YouTube Artist story

Music and press

FEATURED ALBUM

Hard to Hold Onto

A collection of country songs about love, heartbreak, bad decisions, hard truths, and the things that are harder to let go of than we expected.

Album on Spotify

Album on YouTube

START LISTENING

She Gets the Words

Don’t Let Me Ruin This

Who Told You That

Explore the music catalog

Instagram @songsbylenae

Press and recognition

CROCK POT CARTEL

“LeNae Goolsby waited 40 years to write her first song. The wait shows.”

Artist spotlight · September 20, 2026 · By LeNae Goolsby

SIQA AI MUSIC AWARDS

Four-time nominee: Best AI Assisted Song, AI Song of the Year, Best AI Country Artist, and Best AI Country Song.

Nominations listed in artist EPK

SIQA verified AI-assisted catalog

NASHVILLE MUSIC SCENE

Forthcoming October feature, as announced in the artist EPK.

View announcement

Contact and press images

LeNae.Goolsby@gmail.com

For press inquiries, interviews, and music-related opportunities.

Download color portrait

Download black and white image

Full press image gallery